

Join Tim and Sarah Landwehr on a hosted trip to

Patagonia River Ranch

Located near San Martin de los Andes, Argentina

Dates at Ranch : Saturday, January 26 - Saturday, February 2

Rate: $7,500 per person (based on double-occupancy)

Includes everything once you arrive at the ranch: 6 days guided fishing, all non-fishing activities, food, alcohol, laundry service, use of fishing equipment, fishing license, etc. Not included are: all flights, hotels, ground transfers in Buenos Aires, and gratuities for the guides and ranch staff.

Itinerary:

Thursday, January 24

Depart home airport. Overnight flight to Buenos Aires.

Friday, January 25

Arrive in Buenos Aires early morning. Patagonia River Ranch works with a concierge team / travel agency who will greet you upon your arrival at the International Airport. They'll drive you to your hotel, and will help you with the check-in process. They're also happy to arrange dinner reservations, tango shows, city and cultural tours, shopping locations, etc. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

Saturday, January 26

Fly from Buenos Aires (AEP) to San Martin de los Andes (CPC), 2-hour flight on Aerolineas Argentinas. Arrive mid-afternoon - PRR staff will greet you at the airport and drive you either to the ranch. (Guided fishing and organized non-fishing activities are not offered on Saturday afternoon.)

Sunday, January 27 - Friday, February 1

Six days of guided float fishing trips on one of 6 area rivers. Also available during the week is a deluxe overnight camping / fishing trip down one of the most beautiful waterways in the world. For those who don't wish to fish every day (or maybe not at all), non-fishing activities are included in the rate. See full list of options in the PRR brochure.

Saturday, February 2

Depart from the ranch mid-morning for airport. Return flight back to Buenos Aires, then connect to flight back home (overnight flight)... or to another destination in Argentina/South America.

Sunday, February 3

Arrive back home!
